Everyone gets one card face up, then dealer gets one card face down

If dealer has A up, players can make side bet equal to half original bet or less, which would pay 2 to 1 if dealer Blackjack

While there are unplayed hands, do for each hand

If hand only has one card, dealer deals another card

If two cards are same value, player can put down original bet for each and split each card into its own hand

If first two cards sum up to 21 without splitting, player is paid 3 to 2 right away and ends turn

Player can surrender half of original bet and forfeit hand

Player can double down original bet and take one final card for this hand only, can still play other hands

Player repeats hit (take another card) or stay (leave hand)

If hand sum exceeds 21, player loses hand's bet right away
